Nitro Irish Stout is a traditional Irish beer offering a drinking experience only nitrogen can create by lending a remarkably smooth balanced flavor and a velvety head. Made with roasted barley and Irish Stout Malt, this black beer has subtle flavors of coffee and hints of grain. Well-balanced hops in harmony with the roasted malts give it a particularly dry finish.

Breck Brew's Nitro Irish Stout provides a new world take on an old-world classic with dark character and classy creamy body. Each can features a fixed widget inside that releases nitrogen when the can is cracked open for a smooth sip every time! Available nationwide, it's the perfect easy-drinking stout to celebrate all things Irish and a great addition to any St. Patrick's Day celebration.
