"This partnership is more than a whiskey collaboration," said Bryan Nolt, founder, and CEO at Breckenridge Distillery. "By teaming up with No-Shave November, we're raising a glass—and funds—for men's cancer research and together, we will make a real impact."

This year's Dad's Stash is the second iteration of the Breckenridge x Flaviar blend. In 2023, Breckenridge Distillery hosted 20 Flaviar father-figure members at the brewery, where guests had the opportunity to blend the first-ever Dad's Stash whiskey.

"We are proud to be teaming with Breckenridge Distillery for this limited release of Dad's Stash," said Grisa Soba Co-Founder at Flaviar. "We are also joining them in raising colon and rectal cancer awareness by spreading the word among our members, so that good times can last."

This year's Breckenridge Dad's Stash Whiskey is 86 proof with an aroma of black walnut, leather, and hints of tobacco, and palate of chocolate and vanilla leading to a balance creamy caramel and oak finish. The whiskey will be exclusively available on Flaviar.com and Caskers.com for $44.99, with a donation of all sales going to No-Shave November.

Breckenridge Distillery and Flaviar encourages everyone to partake in No-Shave November by growing out their hair for the month. This year proceeds from No-Shave November will benefit Fight CRC, a nonprofit dedicated to raising awareness and funding for colorectal cancer research, education, and prevention. Founded by advocates and survivors, Fight CRC empowers patients and their families through vital resources and support.

"Together, we can make a difference in the fight against colorectal cancer," said Brett Hartigan, Donor Relations Manager at Fight CRC. "No-Shave November is not just about growing hair; it's about raising awareness and funds for critical research and support. We are grateful to Breckenridge Distillery and Flaviar for their partnership in this initiative, which helps empower patients and families in our community."
