High Park signs MOU with the LDB to supply a variety of cannabis brands for sale to the BC market

TORONTO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--High Park Company™ ("High Park") announced today that the company has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the BC Liquor Distribution Branch (LDB) to supply British Columbia cannabis retailers with a diverse array of cannabis products in anticipation of legalization later this year.

"As a company with its roots in BC, we are pleased to work with the LDB towards a supply of cannabis for the BC market," said Adine Fabiani-Carter, Chief Marketing Officer at High Park. "Our goal is to deliver on the high expectations that British Columbians have of us by cultivating and distributing a portfolio of high-quality adult-use products."

"We are thrilled to be reaching this significant milestone in developing a competitive wholesale assortment for non-medical cannabis," said Blain Lawson, LDB's general manager and CEO. "The volume, variety and quality of our product assortment speak to the LDB's commitment to working towards eliminating the illicit market."

Under the terms of the MOU, High Park and LDB will negotiate a definitive agreement to supply the BC market with a variety of new and established cannabis brands and products once adult-use cannabis legalization takes effect, as expected, later this year.
